

START

Homonyms are words that have the same spelling and pronunciation but different meanings. There are twelve pairs of adjacent homonyms hidden in the maze but only their definitions are provided. Can you find them all twelve pairs and solve the puzzle?

A stick that you hit a ball with	Ghosts, for example	The kind of tree that produces coconuts	The central part of the inside of your hand	The long part of an elephant's face
A flying mammal	The place where you borrow money from	The side of a river	Where Cinderella wanted to go	The part of the car where you put shopping, etc.
The place where you borrow money from	The thing that a surfer rides	A tree's rough skin	The smallest living thing	A "hello" with your hand
The part of the car where you put shopping, etc.	Musicians play these to practise	Machines that move air around the room	People who love a band, football team, etc.	The thing that a surfer rides
The smallest living thing	Alcoholic drinks like vodka, whisky, rum, tequila, etc.	Ghosts, for example	Fish are covered in these	An object that you hit, catch, or kick in sports
Your room in prison	A young cow	The back of your lower leg	The kind of tree that produces coconuts	Your room in prison
The back of your lower leg	The long part of an elephant's face	The sound that a dog makes	Musicians play these to practise	An object that you hit, catch, or kick in sports
Machines that move air around the room	The side of a river	A tree's rough skin	Fish are covered in these	Where Cinderella wanted to go

FINISH

PUZZLE